Our school initiatives are on track to meet or exceed our targets

During 2018, we focused on maximising the benefits of this funding for our students. After reviewing our 2018 Investing for Success agreement, it is clear that we are on track to meet or exceed our targeted student outcomes. We continue to implement our initiatives to ensure that every student succeeds.

Initiatives implemented include:

- Initiative 1

Teacher participation in coaching sessions with Caroline de Hennin to set and work towards professional goals central to improved pedagogical practice, to improve student learning outcomes.

- Initiative 2

The establishment of a Literacy leader and School Improvement Working Group to continue the advanced literacy practices within the school, to continue improve student learning outcomes.

- Initiative 3

The construction, trialling and implementation of Individual Communication Plan which will be used to facilitate and improve individual student communication and learning outcomes.
